Lit Circle Notes: Illuminator

TVallic	Date
Illuminator: You find passages your group would like to/should hear read aloud. These passages should be memorable, interesting, puzzling, funny, or important. Your notes should include the quotations but also why you chose them, and what you want to say about them. You can either read the passage aloud yourself or ask members of your group to read roles. Write the page and paragraph number in this column. Unless the quote is really long, you should also write the quote in this column; write your response to it in the main note taking area to the right.)	Sample Questions What is happening in this passage? What does this passage mean, or what is it discussing? How should you present this passage? What is happening in this passage? What is the most unique aspect of this passage—and why is it unique? What did this quotation/passage make you think about when you read it? What makes this passage so confusing, important, or interesting? Assignment for Today: page page page Topic to be carried over to tomorrow:
Down here you should review, retell, or reflect on what you read so far. (Use the back if necessary).

[©] Jim Burke 2001. For more information on this and other Tools for Thought visit www.englishcompanion.com